✦ MOTHER'S NATURE SERIES ✦

MOTHER'S NATURE
(SMALL)

This is the first sculpture in a series of six pieces that were made as part of the Mother's Nature Series. Constructed of solid bronze, this abstract piece flows with energy and was inspired by overwhelming power and beauty Mother Nature herself. With a Hibiscus Stamen head and leaf-like arms and legs, she is larger than the earth and seemingly more powerful. She seems to be both protecting the earth beneath her and celebrating her ownership of it.

"Mother's Nature" (small) is part of the limited bronze Mother's Nature Series.

MOTHER ON THE BALL
(SMALL)

In recognition of the women who try to do it all - "Mother on the Ball" shows how a busy woman's daily routine often seems like a well-practiced juggling act. Children, work, home, appointments, sports, meals... she's got all her "balls" in the air and she's making it look easy!

"Mother on the Ball" (small) is part of the limited bronze Mother's Nature Series.

MOTHER'S NATURE (LARGE)

This is a much larger version of the first sculpture in the Mother's Nature Series. This version has a more life-like head and face than the original Hibiscus Stamen, but still beautifully carries the detailed leaf-like arms and legs.

"Mother's Nature" (large) is part of the limited bronze Mother's Nature Series.

"The Waltz" was created in honor of a 50th Wedding Anniversary, however, the organic abstract figures dancing "on top of the world" could be representative of any couple enjoying a waltz together. The female figure is more gentle and shapely, while the male figure is a bit larger and obviously leading the dance. In keeping with the natural theme of the Mother's Nature Series, the figures have flower-shaped heads positioned as if they are happy to be sharing this moment together.

"The Waltz" is part of the limited bronze Mother's Nature Series.

As a part of the Mother's Nature series, "Morning Glory" was inspired by the heroes of 9/11 and honors all of our men and women in uniform. Abstract and organic in form, it represents fire fighters, police, or the armed services. Our men and women in uniform can never get enough credit for risking their lives to save ours on a daily basis.
